

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Our speaker will be Sam McVay, Executive Director of Disciple Nations and Leader of the Wichita Prayer Movement.

Sam has been married to Amy for 28 years. They have nine children and 14 grandchildren. He and Amy have been involved in church planting, disciple-making, and prayer ministries during those years together. They started a ministry called Disciple Nations in 2012, dedicated to spreading the supremacy of Jesus into all nations by igniting movements of disciple-making and prayer. Disciple Nations is made up of a team of missionary equipppers, multiple equipping bases, house churches, and prayer/worship ministries locally and internationally.

More information about the Disciple Nations ministry is available on the ministry website: <https://www.disciplenations.net>.

Sam also serves with a team in leading the Wichita Prayer Movement and growing Kansas Prayer Movement. (Wichita citywide prayer meetings are gathering well over 1200 believers every two months.)

ABOUT THE TOPIC

The Bible and church history show us the essential place of prayer in the advancement of the gospel and the Kingdom of God. Yet prayer is often neglected because of spiritual warfare, misplaced priorities, and an increasingly distracted culture. But, feeling guilty or condemned about this state of things will not bring about the transformation we so badly need.

During our time together, we will dive into the scriptures and hear personal testimony that will hopefully be used as a catalyst for reviving prayer in our personal lives and ministries. Prayer can and should be a joy filled activity of personal intimacy with our God that leads to the production of fruit that lasts for His Glory.
