Walk with Me:
Simple Principles for Everyday Disciplemaking

Disciplemaking doesn't have to be complicated.
Just invite someone to walk with you.

What if there was an approach to disciplemaking that did not require an expensive curriculum, a paid professional, or a state-of-the-art website? What if there was a process integrated to life, even life in our busy, multi-tasking world?

Jesus did not have a formal procedure we are supposed to follow. He didn't have a ten-step plan or a calendar of looming deadlines. He just walked with His disciples, ate with them, and shared life with them as they journeyed from place to place. Along the way, He transformed their lives. There's nothing complicated about it. It's a simple way of making disciples that we can follow, too.

Veteran disciplemaker Bill Mowry will lead us in looking at the New Testament model of relational, intentional disciplemaking. He will offer important principles for making disciples like Jesus did.

Bill's message titles are:

- 1) The Power of Walking with Heart and Simplicity
- 2) The Power of Walking Slow and Deep
- 3) The Power of Walking on Mission

Please join us for this event. Bring your Bible and notebook, and invite some friends to attend with you.
