

SPEAKERS

Mike Jordahl

Mike met Christ in Spain at the age of 17 as a senior in high school. During his freshman year at Illinois State University, he started to grow spiritually when some Navigator students on his floor befriended him and helped him wholeheartedly follow Christ.

Mike joined the Navigators staff in 1981. He and his wife Nancy have served with the Navigators in Iowa, Kansas, New England and Colorado. Mike has had numerous roles with the Navigators and currently serves as Senior Advisor to the Collegiate Leadership Team.

Mike and Nancy have been married for 42 years. They thank God for each of their three sons, their wives and six grandchildren! Mike and Nancy enjoy showing hospitality to many as well as taking walks, hiking, playing games, and being together.

Mark Scaffidi

Mark Scaffidi planned to walk away from Christianity the moment he stepped foot on Iowa State’s Campus. That all changed when another student took the time to invite Mark into his community, share the Gospel, and show him how to have a relationship with Jesus. When Mark was told that all followers of Jesus are invited to take part in changing the world, one person learning to walk with Jesus at a time, he was hooked.

Since graduating from Iowa State, Mark and his wife Annie have dedicated their lives to living life alongside others as they seek to create contagious communities centered around walking deeply with Jesus together, and empowering others to do the same. Mark currently serves as the Campus Director at Wichita State University, alongside his wife, Annie, and their two daughters, Isabella and Eden, and their son, Isaac.
