Learning How to Advance the Gospel from the Apostle Paul:
A study of 1 Thessalonians

Evangelism and discipleship are commanded by our Lord and are desperately needed in our world today. Even though we live in the culture of the 21st century, are there timeless principles for those important activities that we can learn from the Apostle Paul? The book of First Thessalonians holds a wealth of knowledge and encouragement which can be applied by us today. Mike will help us learn how to practically advance the Gospel with power and vision with a view toward transformed lives.

Message titles are:

- 1) Advancing the Gospel with Power: Paul's Evangelistic Methods
(1 Thessalonians 1:1-2:13)
- 2) Advancing the Gospel with Vision: Paul's Long-term Aim
(1 Thessalonians 2:7-3:13)
- 3) Advancing the Gospel by Discipling: Paul's Focus on Transformed Lives and Communities
(1 Thessalonians 4:1-5:28)

This conference is open to everyone: men and women, couples and singles, teenagers to retirees. Please join us Saturday, October 29th. Bring your Bible, notebook and friends.

After graduating, Mike worked as a Chemical Engineer and then married Chris in 1971. Together they joined the staff of the British Navigators to lead a ministry at the University of Southampton. Later, while leading the ministry in London, Mike made exploratory visits to Nigeria and went on to lead the team that pioneered the Navigators work in Nigeria. In 1981 Mike was appointed Africa Director. For 16 years Mike and Chris lived in Nairobi, Kenya, and traveled and ministered extensively in many African countries. In June 1998 Mike was appointed an International Vice President. They moved to Colorado Springs from where Mike gave oversight to the Navigator ministries in Europe, Russia, Australia and New Zealand. In January 2005 Mike became the 4th International President of the worldwide Navigator work, which Mike led for 10 years until April 2015.

Mike and Chris now divide their time between England and Colorado. They continue to be passionate about teaching the Scriptures, coaching emerging leaders, investing in others couple to couple – and in their family of three married children and eight grandchildren!
